Paper 3 (abstract only)

Title:	Pinocchio 2.0: robotics from kindergarden to University
Keywords:	educational robotics Exemplary Robotics projects in classes continuity
Abstract:	The Project, started many years ago and often updated with news from 2.0., holds information, images, drawings, free softwares, robotics, virtual worlds, pictures, "divergent histories", suggestions, songs, films, memories, curiosities, games, links. It takes origin from Pinocchio, Coppelia or Narnia and from all the lifeless objects/subjects who, as if by magic, become alive thanks to the bridges built among students from infant school to university, italian or not. Fantasy and creativity are the strong points.
