

Carlo Nati
carlo.nati@istruzione.it

Abstract bio data:

Graduated in Architecture from the Università "La Sapienza" Roma, and holds a degree in 'Audiovisual and Multimedia Communication Technologies' from Università degli Studi di Ferrara. He teaches geometry, architecture and interior design at Liceo Artistico Statale. He is also in charge of supervising teacher training students specializing in Art and Design at SSIS, Università del Lazio. Within the Planning Department of the Ministry's General Board, he was in charge of budget management, human resources and information technologies, coordinating the management and organizational aspects thereby involved. He also collaborates with the research group EgoCreaNet, Laboratorio Ricerca Educativa (Educational Research Laboratory) at Università di Firenze and in Xplora - the European portal for science education. He is member of Working Group for development of Scientific and Technological Knowledge Italian Ministry of Education, University, Art, Public Administration

Carlo Nati